

In this space, we'll be sharing information and resources related to First Nations, Métis and Inuit education throughout EIPS. We'll highlight what's happening in our Division schools, provide resources available for students and families, and share upcoming school and community events. Our goal is to share an update at the beginning of each month.

Changes in EIPS First Nations, Métis and Inuit Education Team

EIPS schools are welcoming Matthew Spencer, the newest member of the First Nations, Métis and Inuit Education team. Matthew is a proud Nakoda from Carry the Kettle, Treaty 4 territory. He brings much experience and expertise to the Division. We're excited for Matthew to meet everyone and become an important part of our EIPS family.

Events Around Town

These events are not EIPS directed. We are sharing events that are happening around us this Christmas season in the greater Edmonton area.

December 16 – miyitowin ᓄᓄᓄᓄᓄᓄ Exchange of gifts in Edmonton

December 26 – Indigenous Campfire Conversations with host Beaver Hills Biosphere

Upcoming Days of Significance

here are many important dates of significance in the coming weeks, and EIPS is planning many engaging learning experiences for staff and students across the Division. Please mark your calendars now, so you don't miss out on these very special events.

Family Gathering | January 10

The EIPS First Nations, Métis and Inuit Education team is thrilled to invite you all to our Indigenous Education family gathering on Wednesday, January 10 from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. It will be a Métis Kitchen Party! Glen Allan Elementary, located at 106 Georgian Way in Sherwood Park, has generously offered their gym space for our gathering. Please join us for a meal to begin the evening and then spend time together listening to Métis fiddle champions Alex Kusturok and Brianna Lizotte as well as learning some basic Métis dance steps. It will be a wonderful family dance party to lighten up the long winter evenings! To help with our planning and guarantee there'll be enough food for everyone in attendance, a RSVP form will be sent to families in the near future.

You may have seen our two special guests on the news when they were part of the Indigenous delegation to travel to Rome to meet with the Pope. Alex and Brianna brought the beauty, strength and resilience of their Métis culture by playing their fiddles in the Vatican. Watch the video

You can learn more about Alex Kusturok and Brianna Lizotte from their webpages.

Ribbon Workshop | January 30 and 31

The Ribbon Workshop is for secondary students—make your own Ribbon Skirt or Shirt. We'll continue with our yearly tradition of sharing teachings from Elders and sewing ribbon skirts with interested students. This year, we are adding men's teachings and sewing ribbon shirts. More information will be released as we get closer to the date.

January 4 is National Ribbon Skirt Day, but EIPS is on winter break at that time. Therefore, we've planned our own EIPS divisionwide Ribbon Skirt/Ribbon Shirt Day on February 7.

Direct Student Support

Study Help for Métis students. Rupertsland Institute has secured access to Alberta ExamBank for K-12 Métis students to test their understanding through online practice. Métis students can sign up for the RECC Room to find the login for their MNA Region. Questions? Contact education@rupertsland.org.

Interested in learning more about the Cree 13 Moon calendar?

Cree Literacy Network has a printable 2024 calendar around the Cree th- and y-dialects. The website is also full of excellent information and resources on Cree language and culture.

When the Trees Crackle with the Cold by Bernice Johnson-Laxdal and Miriam Korner is an excellent book and activity pack that can be used by families to learn more about the 13 Moons.

The names of the 13 Moons can vary, depending on one's teachings, dialect, place and culture. For example, Métis scholar Elmer Ghostkeeper outlines the 13 Moons from his teachings. You can read more in his book, Spirit Gifting: The Concept of Spiritual Exchange.
